

Ronald J. Bartoli

VERO BEACH, Fla. – Mr. Ronald James Bartoli, 79, passed away peacefully Dec. 29, 2019, at the VNA Hospice Care in Vero Beach, Fla.

A longtime resident of Wolcott, Conn., he was born Dec. 16, 1940, to the late Ronald and Margaret (Coviello) Bartoli. He served honorably in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1958 to 1961 and served aboard the USS Boston CAG-1, the World's First Guided Missile Cruiser.

He was married to Margaret (Delorenzo) for 41 years until her passing in 2007. He started Ron Bartoli Painting in 1971 alongside his son, Dean. He was successful for 40 years. He spent the last nine years in Florida with his son Dean, his brother Richard, the Elks brotherhood and many friends.

Many good times had by all, especially with Richard. Our father lived his life with integrity and dignity.

He is survived by his sons, Dean, Ron Jr., and Rick and his wife, Ginny; grandsons, Rick, Rob and Ronald III; great-grandchildren, Cody, Will and Payton.
