

James F. Moll, 88, formerly of Great Meadows, NJ and Riegelsville, PA passed away Friday July 5, 2014 in Grace Park, Stroudsburg, PA.

Born: He was born July 21, 1925 in Newark, NJ. A son of the late Joseph and Lorene Whytal.

Personal: Jim was a graduate of Phillipsburg High School. He was a navy veteran of WWII serving aboard the USS BOSTON in the Pacific Theater.

For over 40 years, he was employed by the Riegel Paper Company working in the Warren Glen Mill and retiring in 1986 in the Riegelsville Mill as foreman. After retiring from the Mill he worked part time for the Oak Hill Golf Course in Milford, NJ.

He enjoyed golfing and working with stained glass. Memberships: When Jim lived in Riegelsville, he had been a member of St. John United Church of Christ, the Riegelsville Fire Company and the Riegelsville Emergency Squad. He also was a member of the Warren County Senior Citizens. Survivors:

He is survived by two children and their spouses; Willa and Jim Reilly and James M. and Carmen Moll. One granddaughter and her husband, Erica and Rob Silvestri and two great granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dolores, who died in 1994 and two brothers, Joe and Jack Moll.