

Francis C. Wasilewski

Francis Charles "Frank" Wasilewski, 83, of North Orchard Street, Wallingford, died, Thursday, February 22, 2007, at his home.

He was the beloved husband for 56 years of Rosemary Mushinsky Wasilewski. He was born in Wallingford, March 21, 1923, a son of the late John and Catherine Jasiewicki Wasilewski, and had been a lifelong Wallingford resident.

He was a veteran, having served on the USS Boston CA-69 in the U.S. Navy during World War II, and had been employed by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company as a lithographer for 35 years until his retirement.

He was a parishioner of Most Holy Trinity Church and SS. Peter and Paul Church in Wallingford.

Besides his wife Rosemary, he is survived by his two daughters, Marcy A. Wasilewski and her husband William S. Borer of Cambridge, MA, and Laurie A. Wasilewski and her husband Timothy P. Cavanaugh, and his two children, Amelia, and Caleb of East Hampton, CT; his granddaughter, Elizabeth E.H. Rice De M.D. and her husband Sayan De M.D. of Dallas, TX; his sister Kathryn (Mrs. Anthony) Bocchino of Yalesville; and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his infant daughter, Aimee, and three infant sons, Michael, James, and Thomas; a sister, Mary Czajka; and four brothers, Nicholas J. Wasilewski, Walter W. Wasilewski, Anthony J. Wasilewski, and William J. Wasilewski. Frank was a devoted husband and loving father and grandfather.

His family would like to extend their gratitude to their many friends for their care and concern for both Frank and Rosemary during their illnesses.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Mass of Christian Burial Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. in SS. Peter and Paul Church, 127 North Orchard Street, Wallingford.
