

Raymond K. Bowman

Raymond K. Bowman, surrounded by his loving family, passed away peacefully, on May 14, 2021. Born on September 15, 1940 in Hamilton, Ohio, he lived an incredibly rich life that took him on adventures all over the world from Fort Knox, Kentucky to overseas aboard the USS Boston (CAG-1), finally settling in Edgewater Park, New Jersey for the last 46 years, establishing a long and successful career in the automotive service industry.

Raymond is survived by a loving family including his wife of 47 years, Pamela, children, Christopher (Samantha), Sara (Daniel) Deichert, adoring grandchildren, Zachary & Carly Deichert, and by his siblings, all who affectionately called him "Buddy", Wanda Spurlock, Marlene Guynes and Hugh (Pam) Guynes) and many nieces and nephews.
