

Jacque Cassella Obituary

Jacque Charles Cassella, Sr. was born on March 27, 1943 in West Haven. Jack passed from medical complications on Friday, March 22, 2025.

His parents were Michele (aka Michael) Cassella and Vincenza Minichino Cassella, he was born in his family home and raised in West Haven, CT. Some of his proudest accomplishments include graduating from Fairfield University in CT in 1964, serving in the US Navy as a radar technician aboard the USS Boston CAG-1, and a successful career as a Senior VP at Aetna Life Insurance.

Jack was a family man, and spent his life surrounded by loved ones creating memories of camping, sailing, traveling, and of course, fine Italian meals. Throughout his life he owned various muscle cars, motorcycles and sailboats, and always encouraged his loved ones to follow their passions as well. Daddio will be missed by his daughters, Christine, Michelle and Lisa Cassella; 6 granddaughters and soon to be 7 great-grandchildren.

Jack is preceded in death by his son Jacque C. Cassella Jr. and his first love, Margaret Cassella, the mother of his children and an adventurous partner who encouraged his passion for sailing. He was lucky to find love again with Elizabeth "Betty" Cassella and enjoyed 17 years of traveling until she passed. Jack continued to pursue his happiness and found it with his surviving partner Marilyn Pittman, and spent his last years traveling, volunteering for the Rocky Hill Historical Society and Over the Hill Gang Car Club.
