

James COGHILL Obituary

Published by Richmond Times-Dispatch on Mar. 10, 2012.

COGHILL, James

Thomas, 75, of Tappahannock, died peacefully in his sleep on Tuesday, March 6, 2012 at the Richmond Place in Lexington, Ky. He was a veteran of the United States Navy, serving on the USS Boston as a boiler man and a member of the VFW. James was employed by Condrey Motor Parts and later owned and operated Coghill Machine & Alternator Shop. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Lee Baldwin Coghill. James is survived by his son, Stephen C. Coghill and his wife, Heidi, and their children, Kathyraine Mae and Alexander James Coghill, all of Berry, Ky.; one brother, Stanley Coghill of Tappahannock; and numerous nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held 2 p.m. Sunday in the Marks-Bristow Funeral Home, Tappahannock. Interment will follow in Mt. Zion Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 4 to 6 p.m. Saturday (today) at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 5141 Dunbrooke Rd., Tappahannock, Va. 22560.