

Stanley W. Healy, 76 of Poplar Bluff, died May 8, 2004, at Mark Twain Caring Center. Mr. Healy was born Aug. 17, 1927, at Polk, IL.

He was a veteran of the United States Navy, having served in World War II. His last duty station was aboard the Cruiser USS Boston

CAG-1. He retired from the Navy in 1964 after 20 years of service.

Survivors include two daughters, Rhoda Healy and Diane Gillis, both of Boston; two sons, Stanley E. Healy of Chaffee, MO; and Paul Healy of Bremerton, WA; one sister, Enid Snee of Poplar Bluff, MO; two brothers, Ed Healy and the Rev. Bob Healy, both of Poplar Bluff, MO and seven grandchildren.

