

Robert Germain Houghtlin, Jr., age 79, died peacefully on March 20, 2017 at his home in Nashville, NC, where he has lived since 2013.

Bob was born in Jackson, Mississippi in 1938 to Jane Gaddis Sanders and Robert Sr. He grew up in Evanston, IL and graduated second in his class from Evanston Township High School where he played sports, notably basketball.

He attended Princeton University on a naval scholarship, played basketball, was a member of Cap and Gown, and graduated in 1960.

He entered the Navy as Ensign on active duty for three years. He served aboard the USS Boston CAG-1 from 1961-1963 as the Operations officer.

He resigned his regular commission as a Lt. Jr. Grade and accepted a Reserve Commission for 8 years. He left the service as a Lt. Commander.

He is survived by his wife, Stepheny Forgue Houghtlin; his brothers, Charles Benjamin Houghtlin of New Lebanon, NY; David Christopher Houghtlin of Atlanta, GA.; John Jeffery Houghtlin (deceased) and their families; his children, Deborah Ann Houghtlin Roesner; Robert G. Houghtlin, 3rd; Elizabeth Whitney Houghtlin Barboro; Claire White Greer; Mark G. White; Robert W. White, Jr.; his sons-in-law, John Roesner, Jr.; Rev. George Greer, Jr.; Joseph Barboro; his daughters-in-law, Sherry A. White; Michelle M. Houghtlin, Shari M. White; his Godson, Thomas Potter Smith; his grandchildren, Sarah Katherine Rollings; Andrew Holeman Greer; Sally A. Roesner; Chelsea R. White; Kelsey M. Houghtlin; Meghan M. Roesner; Macy E. Houghtlin; Taylor M. Houghtlin; Samuel William White; Emily Ann Roesner; Madeline Whitney Barboro; William Robert Barboro; and his great-grandchildren, Annaclaire Rollings and Bjorn Holeman Greer.