

Robert Dale Johnson, 75, of Bonham, Texas, passed away on December 1, 2025, surrounded by his beloved wife. He will be remembered for his unwavering spirit, warm heart, and steadfast dedication to his family and his country. Born on October 5, 1950, in Dallas, Texas, Robert was the son of Troy Johnson and Patricia Ann Moyers Price.

He proudly served in the United States Navy, honoring his nation. Following his service, Robert built a successful career as an insurance adjuster, traveling across the country to assist communities in the aftermath of storms. His work reflected his lifelong commitment to helping others when they needed it most. On April 30, 1993, Robert married the love of his life, Dawn McRae Johnson, at the First United Methodist Church in Bonham, Texas.

Together they shared a life filled with devotion, joy, and cherished traditions—especially during the Christmas season, when Robert delighted in decorating the tree and giving gifts to the people he loved.

Those who knew him will remember his determination, his honesty, and his unmistakable presence.

Robert is preceded in death by his brothers, Jerry Johnson and Paul Johnson, parents, Troy Johnson and wife Helen, and Patricia Ann Price and husband Dick. Robert is survived by his beloved wife, Dawn Johnson; his son, Troy D. Johnson, and wife Christy of Milton, Florida; grandchildren, Travis Johnson of Milton, Florida, Jeffrey Johnson and wife Skyler, also of Milton, Florida; and great-grandson, Gatlin Johnson. He is also survived by his brother, Scott Johnson of North Carolina; sister, Patricie Christian of Dublin, Texas; along with numerous aunts, cousins, extended family members, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.
