

John Patrick Kutscher -MACON - John Patrick Kutscher was born June 15, 1957 in Massillon, Ohio. He passed away on Friday, December 10, 2010 after a brief illness.

John graduated from Washington High School in Massillon, Ohio and attended Kent State University.

He served during the Vietnam Conflict on the USS Boston and was awarded the Vietnam Service Medal and one Bronze Star.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kutscher, and is survived by a sister, Joanne Miller and a brother, James Kutscher, as well as four nieces, two nephews, and many great nieces and nephews.

John lived in Macon since approximately 1972 when was transferred with Enterprise Aluminum.

After Enterprise Aluminum closed, John began his own business which was called "The Frame Maker". Following that, he worked with Bibb County Regional Development Center for a short while and later went on to work with the Monroe County Planning and Zoning Commission as a zoning officer up until the time of his death.

John loved cooking and often prepared dinners for friends and also did some catering. During Christmas and other special holidays, John volunteered at the Christ Episcopal Church to help feed the poor. He loved traveling and rarely ever failed to spend his vacation time in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. While in Mexico, he donated time to Casa Hogar, an orphanage. –

John was a larger than life kind of fellow and will leave a void in the lives of all the many friends he made over the years, while in Macon, GA