

CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN Obituary

Cornelius F. Moynihan of Yonkers died on Tuesday March 13, 2001 at age 59.

Born on January 17, 1942 in Yonkers to Cornelius and Catherine (Ronan) Moynihan where he was raised and educated graduating from Gorton- HS.

Mr. Moynihan served as the business manager for local #91 in Tarrytown for the last 5 years, and was with the union for over 36 years. The union was the Heat and Frost Insulators and Asbestoes Workers, where he served as president, vice president and member of their executive committee and trustee.

He also served on the advisory board for Mt. Sinai Irving J. Selikoff Center for Occupational and Enviromental Medicine. His membership included the Westchester County Building Trade Assoc., Rockland County Building Trade and Putnam County Assoc. also

Mr. Moynihan served in the Navy from 1961 to 1963 being honorably discharged as Petty Officer Third Class, Yeoman.

He was honored by being selected as an aide to the Grand Marshall of the Yonkers St. Patrick's Day Parade in 1998. His community services included his membership with the Lakers AC where he served as past president, the Elks Assoc. Post # 707 in Yonkers, the 6th Ward Democratic Club, Chippewa Club. Mr. Moynihan was a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church, a former member of their Holy Name Society, former Parish Council member and Bingo Volunteer. On November 14, 1964 he married Joanne Ball in Sacred Heart Church, she survives living in Yonkers.

He is also survived by his two sons Timothy of Danbury, CT, Brian of Garnerville, NY and his daughter Mrs. Mark (Jane) Piche' of Troy, NY. Neal is the proud grandfather of Sean, Kevin, Lena and Ronan. He is also survived by his brother John of Yonkers and several nieces and nephews.